Project Talk Update

Project Talk Trial is looking for rural communities to host an advance care planning event!

Add your community to the map! Be one of 75 communities to host a Project Talk event for underserved populations, which include racial and ethnic minorities, low-income, and rural populations.

Hosts receive a $300 grant and participants can qualify for up to $65 in gift cards.

Help us reach West Coast, Rocky Mountain & Midwest hosts!

TABLETOPICS

The Project Talk Trial is a 5-year NIH-sponsored randomized controlled research initiative to evaluate the effectiveness of several approaches to promote advance care planning in underserved populations.

Three community conversation activity tools will be assessed:

Hello

An end-of-life conversation game that prompts players to share their values, goals, and beliefs about end-of-life issues using a booklet of 32 questions.

The Conversation Project Conversation Starter Guide

An 11-page guide with open-ended prompts that encourages people talk about their wishes for end-of-life care, share their wishes, consider their values and preferences, and rank their priorities.

TableTopics

A popular, commercially available game that consists of question cards to prompt social engagement through light-hearted and fun conversations.
