Project Talk Update

Bring advance care planning to your community in 2024!

Add a Project Talk event to your community engagement calendar! Passionate about advance care planning? Apply today!

Rural Organizations Needed!

U.S. rural communities face health inequities related to advance care planning. Get people engaged in making plans for future end-of-life care.

Hosts receive a $300 grant, and participants can get up to $90 in gift cards.

Recent Project Talk Events

Project Talk in Kansas City!

Shoutout to Polo Camacho, Health Ethics and Community Engagement Program Manager at the Center for Practical Bioethics! The Project Talk event took place in Kansas City, KS last month and it was a great turnout. Thank you for bringing Project Talk to Kansas!

Project Talk in Lancaster!

Karen Stauffer, Community Educator at Hospice and Community Care in Lancaster, PA, hosted a Project Talk event! Thank you for bringing Project Talk to your community and sharing the importance of advance care planning.

Project Talk back in Cali!

Joanie Bowes-Warren and Denise Kline with Vitas Healthcare hosted a Project Talk event this month! The event was held in Antioch, CA and we received a lot of positive feedback from participants. Here is what Joanie had to say about the event:

I think the event went splendid. I wish it was longer because people wanted to talk more but it was awesome and great that they wanted more! I'm happy people are getting it and the stigma that "we don't talk about it" is broken. Thank you!

- Joanie Bowes-Warren, Project Talk Host

Project Talk in Akron!

Sarah Duda, MD at Cleveland Clinic–Akron General in Akron, OH, hosted a Project Talk event this month and it was a great turnout! Big thanks to Sarah for bringing Project Talk to Akron.

Project Talk in New York!

Shoutout to Kate Favaro, Bereavement Coordinator at Hospice of St. Lawrence Valley for hosting a Project Talk event! The event took place in Potsdam, NY. Thank you!

Project Talk in Cleveland!

Cynthia Anderson and Donna McIntosh with Hope Behavioral Health hosted a Project Talk event last week and it was a great turnout! The event was held in Cleveland, OH. Here is what Cynthia and Donna had to say about how the event went:

I loved every minute of it. When people showed up I was so excited and happy that people came and enjoyed the event.

- Cynthia Anderson, Project Talk Host

It went great. I'm amazed of the turnout and the response.

- Donna McIntosh, Project Talk Host
