Project Talk Events in February

Freehold, NJ

Shoutout to Lee Ann Newland, Co-Director at the Community Arts Center of Freehold for hosting a Project Talk event this month. Here is what she had to say about her event:

As the host of the Project Talk event, I feel like we had a great experience in Freehold bringing communities members together to have a conversation about their wants and wishes for end-of-life. We had a great turnout and fabulous research assistants helping us today and it was just a wonderful day.
