What do Project Talk Hosts say about their events?

Concho, AZ

Host: Susan Turner, VP of Community Programs at Accord Hospice

Providing education on advance care planning is part of our commitment to the communities we serve at Accord Hospice. We recently were privileged to host a Project Talk event in the White Mountains of Arizona and the impact it had on those who attended was extremely positive. In addressing a topic that is often avoided, we were struck by the way it was embraced with meaningful conversations that included both touching and lighthearted moments. We were impressed at the format and content that allowed us to present in our own unique way and the support we received by both the Hospice Foundation of America and Penn State University.

~ Susan Turner, Project Talk Host

Louisville, KY

Host: Dianne Feltham, Certified End-of-Life Doula at United Crescent Hill Ministries

I thoroughly enjoyed bringing Project Talk to my community. Pleasantly surprised at turnout and participation. Heard several comments about learning some new things, especially from others. Thank you for letting me bring this opportunity to my community. Good support, good prep and guidance all the way!

~ Dianne Feltham, Project Talk Host

Carlisle, PA

Host: Beth Montgomery with The Butterfly Beth

Thank you for letting me be a part of Project Talk. I thought we had some really wonderful conversations. Our group was small but mighty. I feel like we created these ripples in the community because the people who were sitting in these chairs have a lot of influence in the community and they are going to start creating more ripples and more conversations and I think we gave them the right tools to have those conversations.

~ Beth Montgomery, Project Talk Host
